

4K Learning Targets

LITERACY

MATH

FINE MOTOR

SOCIAL/EMOTIONAL

Learning Targets:

- I can recognize and name letters
- I can identify letter sounds.
- I can hear the ending sounds in words. I can play with words to make rhymes.
- I can identify the title, front and back covers, a word vs. a letter. I can read left to right.
- I can identify sounds at the beginning of a word.
- I can write my first name.

Learning Targets:

- I can count in a sequential order
- I can count each object once to find the whole
- I can recognize and identify shapes
- I can recognize, continue, and create simple patterns
- I can group objects based on how they are similar
- I can recognize and name numbers

Learning Targets:

- I can use my thumb and forefinger to pick up small objects.
- I can control a marker, crayon, or pencil to draw a line and create some shapes.
- I can cut lines and curves with scissors.
- I can fit together a wide variety of manipulatives such as large stringing beads, large puzzle pieces, play dough and cookie cutters, or large Legos.

Learning Targets:

- Identify body parts used for whole body listening.
- What does expected and unexpected mean? Situational behavior and expectations. Know that my actions affect other people and how they feel.
- What are the group expectations? How to work cooperatively, share and take turns.
- What is a friend? How to be kind and considerate.
- Identify feelings in self and others. How to be empathetic.
- Recognize your own emotions. Strategies to regulate emotions.
- Identify the problem. Know the different sizes of problems. Recognize that problems have different reaction sizes.
- Identify different strategies to solve problems.
