RESIDENCY

Any student seeking entrance into the Lake Mills Area School District summer school program must reside within the established boundaries of the district. The child's parent or legal guardian must reside within the Lake Mills Area School District boundaries. Non-resident students will be charged tuition in accordance with state tuition laws (121.77). Non-resident students who have applied to the Board of Education by April 2025 for the Public School Open Enrollment Program, and have been approved to enroll for the 2025-26 school year, may have tuition waived for summer school. Summer school tuition is $130/single and $260/double courses and $90 for swim lessons.

Proof of residency will be required for students seeking to enroll in the Lake Mills Area School District Summer School Program.

Items needed to pre-register:

- Summer School Pre-Registration & Emergency Form
- Proof of Residency Form and supporting documentation (to be verified)
- Signed AUP (Technology Form)

Completed forms can be emailed to Rebecca.Crenshaw@lakemills.k12.wi.us or dropped off at the District Office. You will then receive your login information for Skyward Family Access 1-2 days before Arena Scheduling opens, by email. For questions regarding pre-registration please contact Rebecca Crenshaw at 920-648-2215 ext. 366.
