1. There will be an announcement to release students from Advisory today. Please DO NOT leave your advisory when you hear the 9:56 bell.
2. Reminder – no school tomorrow and next Monday!
3. Flashlight Easter Egg Hunt on Friday at 8:30 PM on the LMHS Football Practice Fields. Grab your flashlight and come find over 800 eggs containing candy or prizes. You'll have the opportunity to win over 30 gift cards to SimpleKup, Jerzey Junction, Culver's and Kwik Trip. There's also wireless earbuds, Wis. Badgers backpacks, Kleen Kanteen Water Bottles, Flashlights and much, much more!
4. For more information about the NHS Blood Drive or to get signed up, stop by the table in the commons during lunch! You may also see Mrs. Spiegel during advisory or scan the QR codes on the posters around the school to sign up. All donors receive a t-shirt, snacks, games and prizes AND each donor saves 3 lives!
5. The following seniors need to see Ms. Renz: Oscar Arana Alonso, Romzy Barketellah, AJ Bender, Yosiel Cisneros, Griffin Dolwick, Annalis Goeschko, Morgan Haight, Levi Johnson, Emma Kitsembel, Chet Klawitter, Max Kressner, John Meshak, Lynx Moll, Landon Mueller, Arley Quintana-Cruz, Johnny Schwoerer, Nina Sehmer, Elizabeth Voss, and Madison Wisely.
6. Congratulations to the Concert Choir for earning 3 First ratings at the Large Group Festival. Two of them were perfect scores! They sang 3 Class A, A cappella pieces for three music professionals.

7. Congratulations to the Bass Choir who also earned 3 First ratings at the Large Group Festival. They also sang 3 Class A pieces. Both ensembles performed at the highest level. Bravo!
8. Saturday is – Patriots’ Day. Patriots were colonists who wanted independence from British rule. Most hoped to find peaceful ways to settle their differences with England. When the British decided to look for Samuel Adams and John Hancock, who were hiding in Concord, Paul Revere and Billy Dawes rode through the night warning other Patriots in New England. The American Revolution began when the first shots were fired at Lexington on April 19, 1775. Each side said the other fired first. Patriots’ Day was established to mark the beginning of the Revolutionary War.
9. Attention All - Prom is May 3rd! Tickets will be on sale starting next week during advisories and after school. Tickets are $15 each. See posters around the school for more details including grand march times. This year, anyone who would like to be announced for the grand march will be, with the court and king and queen being announced last.
Post Prom will take place 11pm-2:00am at the bowling alley. Tickets are FREE and can be picked up from the prom ticket sales table. Everyone is welcome to attend. You do not need to attend prom to attend Post Prom. There will be FREE bowling, food, and games and several prizes throughout the night and names will be re-entered to win $100 at the end of the night—must be present to win. See the posters around the school for more info!
