What is this book about?

The House on Mango Street tells different vignettes about a teen Latina girl growing up in Chicago. Some are heartbreaking, while others are heartwarming. Critically acclaimed and loved by many readers.

Yes, I definitely think this book is worth reading. It tells so many different stories that deal with real-life issues, told through the point of view of a young teen.

St. Patrick's Day Sprinkles

Instructions

1. Pop 10 cups of popcorn and remove all of the unpopped kernels. Salt it liberally and set aside in a large bowl.
2. Add 3 tablespoons of butter to a medium saucepan. Melt the butter on medium heat, stirring occasionally until the butter is completely melted.
3. Add 3 cups of mini marshmallows to the melted butter.
4. Stir until the marshmallows are covered in the butter, and then continue to stir until the marshmallows are completely melted.

5. Take the marshmallow mixture off of the heat as soon as the last marshmallow has melted.

6. Slowly pour about a third of the marshmallow mixture over the salted popcorn.

7. Gently fold the marshmallow mixture in with the popcorn. Continue to add the marshmallow mixture a bit at a time, stirring between each addition. The popcorn should be completely covered in the warm marshmallow mixture.

8. Now pour the popcorn onto a cookie sheet covered with parchment paper, foil, or a Silpat liner. Use the spatula to even the popcorn out on the cookie sheet.

9. Once the popcorn is covered in marshmallow mixture it is time to add the candy. But don't wait too long. You want the marshmallow mixture to still be warm and sticky so the candy and sprinkles will stick to it. Sprinkle the candy onto the popcorn. We decorated our popcorn with mini marshmallows, Shamrock Marshmallows from a box of Lucky Charms cereal, and a mixture of Green M&M's in three different types - M&M Minis, Regular M&M's, and Pretzel M&M's. We also mix together two different kinds of green St. Patrick's Day sprinkles.

10. Allow the St. Patrick's Day Popcorn to cool. Break apart into pieces and serve.

A: You are going to say something relatively witty today. Stay quiet during a conversation, then jump in with a cool quip and everyone will be impressed.

A: Someone close to you is having low self esteem today. Time to be aggressively kind!

Q: I had a dream where I was sleeping in the snow outside. What does it mean?

A: That is so boring that I'm not sure it was a dream. You might want to find out if you sleepwalk.
